by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 10, is amended by adding the following sections as a new part.

SECTION 2. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Governor's Inauguration Finance Disclosure Act."

SECTION 3. No later than thirty (30) days after being elected to the office of governor, the governor-elect shall establish a governor's inauguration expense fund which shall be used to finance any event or events held for the purpose of celebrating the governor's inauguration. Such fund is subject to the contribution limits and reporting requirements provided in this part.

SECTION 4. (a) No person shall make contributions for the governor's inauguration which, in the aggregate exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(b) No multicandidate political campaign committee shall make contributions for the governor's inauguration which, in the aggregate, exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500).

(c) No executive officers or other representatives of any corporation doing business within this state shall make contributions for the governor's inauguration which, in the aggregate, exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500).

(d) The governor-elect may transfer funds from such governor-elect's campaign fund to the inauguration fund.

SECTION 5. (a) The governor-elect shall file with the registry of election finance a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of such governor-elect's inauguration fund.

(c) The financial disclosure statement for contributions made up until thirty (30) days before any inauguration event shall be filed no later than ten (10) days before the governor's inauguration. The financial disclosure statement for all other contributions shall be filed no later than (30) days after the governor's inauguration.

SECTION 6. (a) The governor-elect may hold over funds from such governor-elect's first inauguration to be used in a second inauguration if such governor-elect is re-elected. If such governor-elect is in a second term, chooses not to run for re-election or is not re-elected, such governor-elect has ninety (90) days to donate any funds remaining in the governor's inauguration fund to a non-profit organization. The governor-elect may request an extension of an additional sixty (60) days from the registry of election finance to donate such remaining funds.

(b) Once the funds have been donated as provided subsection (a), a financial disclosure statement shall be filed with the registry of election finance disclosing who received such funds and the amount of such donation.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
